

Forensic Profile: Černohajev the Man

- Once brilliant, later broken — a Soviet-trained aerospace engineer whose world collapsed along with his country.
- Privileged but hidden — lived well, had influence, yet disappeared professionally after university—no paper trail.
- A man without a country — born in Kazakhstan, educated in Latvia, loyal to a USSR that no longer existed.
- He waited... then withered — held onto his notes for decades, perhaps waiting for the world to come back to him.
- Echoes of our own — not unlike a veteran: stripped of mission, silenced by secrets, left with only memory and vodka.
